Strategy & Tactics Quarterly

2018
3	Fall	Battle of Stalingrad: This issue provides an in-depth historical analysis of one of history's greatest battles. It analyzes every facet of the 1942 German offensive in Russia, including the Soviet counter-offensive that marked the war's overall turning point. The nine chapters each include several original maps, detailed orders of battle, and numerous photographs. The narrative is further enlivened with descriptive quotes from those who took part in planning and carrying out the actual events.
2019*
4	Winter	World War III What-ifs: At the end of World War II, two superpowers emerged from the conflict: the United States and the Soviet Union. In the decades that followed, these two superpowers faced off in what became known as the Cold War. This issue analyzes the military aspects of that long struggle between the two powers. The approach is to analyze where World War III might have started and been fought in each of the decades between 1945 and 1991. The prose is clear and free of jargon, but rich in detail and analysis. The narrative is enlivened with descriptive quotes from those who took part in planning and carrying out the actual events.
5	Spring	American Revolution: An in-depth historical look at the American War of Independence. This issue will cover the background of the revolution and the military campaigns to secure American independence.
6	Summer	D-Day 75th Anniversary: An in-depth analysis of the Allied operation into Normandy during World War II. This issue will cover the build-up, landing, and subsequent operations through June 1944.
7	Fall	Ancient Warships: An in-depth look at the history of ancient warships and the innovations in warship construction, tactics, and their influence on later naval thought.
2020*
8	Winter	Rise of the British Empire: This issue will be an in-depth analysis of how Britain rose to become an international superpower and how they expanded their reach around the globe.
9	Spring	Wilderness Campaign: An in-depth analysis of the Wilderness Campaign from May to June 1864 during the American Civil War.
